Special Offer

Terms of Use

Version applicable from: 29 June 2024

1. What is the Special Offer?

What is the Special Offer? Qonto offers a limited special offer (the "Special Offer") to new clients incorporated in France subscribing to Qonto's Basic Plan for Self-Employed who do not yet have an account with Qonto (the "New Clients").

Eligible New Clients will benefit from an extended free trial period. Instead of 30 days, New Clients can test Qonto for free for 90 days.

2. Who is eligible?

Eligible New Clients for the Special Offer must sign up for a Basic Plan for Self-Employed.

All other plans are excluded from the Special Offer. The Smart, Premium, Essential, Business, and Enterprise plans are excluded from the Special Offer but can still be tested for free for 30 days.

The Special Offer is also not applicable to clients opening an account using the business creation assistance service (Business Creators Pack).

All other information regarding each Plan can be found in Qonto's Pricing Terms.

3. How long does the Special Offer last?

The Special Offer is valid for subscriptions taken out from July 27, 2024, to July 31, 2024.

4. What are the other important details?

Qonto reserves the right to suspend, terminate, or modify these Terms of Use at any time and for any reason or to revoke the benefits conferred by this Special Offer if deemed appropriate.

If Qonto has good reason to believe that the New Client is making fraudulent or abusive use of the Special Offer, Qonto reserves the right to revoke the benefits conferred by the Special Offer and take any other appropriate measures.

Unless otherwise stated in these Terms of Use, Qonto's General Terms and Conditions will remain in effect.
